

Towngas supports relief efforts in Gansu

(19 December 2023) On 18 December, a 6.2-magnitude earthquake struck Jishishan County in Linxia Hui Autonomous Prefecture, Gansu Province, which left local residents suffering under severe cold. The Hong Kong and China Gas Company Limited (Towngas), the parent company of Towngas Smart Energy is deeply concerned about the situation and extends heartfelt sympathies to the affected compatriots, as well as high regards to the relief workers. Towngas has announced a donation of RMB 1 million to support relevant relief organisations on the mainland. Towngas hopes that the relief work will go smoothly and people will return to normal life as soon as possible.
